MESSAGE

Shehryar Khan Afridi
Minister of State

Pakistan has a huge potential for a religious tourism. Being a centre of historic worship places of Sikhism, Buddhism and Hinduism, Pakistan has taken a revolutionary step to preserve, protect and promote the religious heritage and special facilitation centres have been set up to welcome religious tourists from all over the world.

In this regard, Pakistan has taken a special focus to promote the worship places of our Sikh brothers and sisters. For this purpose, Prime Minister Imran Khan took a bold initiative of opening Kartarpur border to facilitate the Sikh tourists to come and pay homage to their three most revered and sacred places in Pakistan. In context to this, we are in touch not only with the Indian government but also we have invited the world's Sikh organizations offering them best possible hospitality and to make them feel at their home. Ministry of Interior, in this regard, has launched a ground-breaking visa regime to facilitate the visiting faithful. After achieving durable peace, the development process has been started. By launching deepening institutional reforms and a vibrant visa regime, we have opened Pakistan to the world, we have a lot to offer, just come and explore Pakistan.

I appreciate your program of bringing Sikh Pilgrims for Religious Tourism to Pakistan.

May you succeed in your efforts.

Sardar Hira Singh
Chairman Gurdwara Arambagh

Pakistan being the soil of Sofi, saint and civilization of different school of thoughts has great potential for tourism to enjoy and understand the national , social religious and cultural art of the different religions having their roots within the territories of Pakistan wherein the Sikh Shrines, Sanatan dharma temples, Buddhism, Monks of Jain dharma and a big university of takhatshilla (now called Texila)which was the reign by King Ashoka the grandson of Chandergupta Moria.

Punjab being the birth place of Baba Guru Nanak Dev Ji founder of Sikh religion, Sikh emperor maharaja Ranjit Singh and martyred place of Fifth Guru Arjan dev ji has great significance for international Sikh community to visit their pilgrim.

Apart from that Lahore fort , Badshahi mosque and Moughal historical places including hills and mountain with cold whether attract the tourism sector in Pakistan.

The recently announced chapter of Kartarpur Corridor is a big step taken by Prime Minister Mr. Imran khan to create interfaith Harmony between the residents of subcontinent and to normalize the relations and to create love and peace between religions in the line with the philosophical thought of Holy prophet of Islam and philosophy of Baba Guru Nanak Dev ji who share the versus of Baba Farid Gang Shakar Muslim Sofi and Baba Kabir Bhagat in holy Book of Sikhs Sri Guru Granth Sahib to create interfaith Harmony on the philosophy thought "Recognize the Human Race one"
